

Logging into Physician Practices Patient Portal (Healow)

Records from your Personal Physician

The Copley Hospital Physician Practices Patient Portal offers convenient, 24/7 online access to documents from your provider's office. Sign-up today and access records from Cardiology, General Surgery, The Women's Center, Mansfield Orthopaedics, and Neurology.

Records include

Summaries & Upcoming Appointments

Medications/Allergies

Lab Results

Correspond with Your Healthcare Team

Patient Education Information

1. Go to the Copley Hospital website

CopleyVT.org

2. Select PATIENT PORTAL

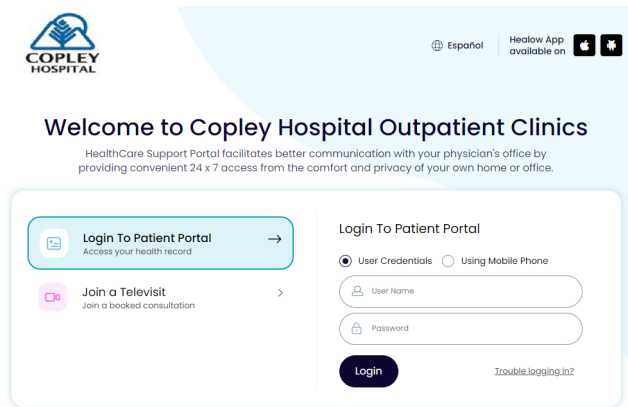

3. Select ACCESS MY PHYSICIAN PATIENT PORTAL

4. Enter your login credentials and click the “Login” button

If you haven’t already created an account, you can click on the “Enroll Now” link below the login fields.

4. Review the security information

The first time you log in, you will be prompted to review the website’s security information. Please read this information carefully and click on the “Accept” button to proceed.

You are now logged in to the Physician Practices Portal!

Additional login tips

- Make sure your web browser is up to date.
- Use a strong password and keep it confidential.
- Do not share your login credentials with anyone.
- If you forget your password, you can click on the “Trouble logging in?” link on the login page.

For issues with your Practice Portal “Healow” call the following

Cardiology: 802-888-8344

General Surgery or Neurology: 802-888-8372

Mansfield Orthopaedics: 802-521-5220

The Women’s Center: 802-888-8100

Please note that your medical record may consist of electronic and paper documentation. Only electronic documentation is available through your patient portal. For access to paper documentation in your Medical Record please contact Health Information Management (Medical Records) at 802-888-8362.